FIVE KEY REASONS to Renew Your Membership

1. RESOURCES
   Always find the most current, evidence-based practices in Communiqué, School Psychology Review, the Journal of Applied School Psychology, and the Journal of Educational and Psychological Consultation. Listen to podcasts including two new series: one on equity, diversity, and inclusion and one on public policy. Watch webinars and read accompanying guidance in our COVID-19 Resource Center.

2. CONNECTIONS
   Turn to 24,000+ colleagues in the online Communities to help you work through challenges that come with returning to school, increased caseloads, and more. Learn from peers sharing their experience in the COVID-19 Ask the Experts webinar series. Speak with like-minded peers at the convention to discover solutions to tough situations you face.

“As an early career school psychologist adapting to challenges posed by COVID-19, I’ve found my NASP membership to be invaluable in keeping me updated on the latest advances in our field.”
