Mentor and Mentee agree to participate in the NASP Mentorship Program (“Program”) which is intended to help connect mentees with potential mentors in school psychology.

By voluntarily participating in the Program, Mentor and Mentee agree to the following:

1. The Program does not, nor does it intend to, offer therapy, teaching, or supervision to Mentee by Mentor (and vice versa). Neither Mentee nor Mentor shall consider any action or inaction by the other or NASP to be therapy, teaching or supervision.
2. Communications between Mentee and Mentor do not, and are not intended to, provide psychological services or advice to the Mentee’s clients.
3. Mentee will not refer others to Mentor for services, nor will Mentee accept referrals from Mentor during the mentoring relationship. Mentor will not refer others to Mentee, nor will Mentor accept referrals from Mentee during the mentoring relationship.
4. Mentee and Mentor agree to respect the privacy of one another in accordance with professional standards and agree not to disclose information outside the professional mentoring relationship, unless the other party authorizes in writing such disclosure, except that nothing in this paragraph should be read to limit either party from pursuing an internal complaint or other action if they believe improper or illegal conduct has occurred.
5. Mentee and Mentor agree to be bound by NASP’s Principles for Professional Ethics.
6. While the Program tries to successfully pair mentees and mentors, matches do not always work. Either party can contact NASP at mentors@naspweb.org to request a change, subject to availability, or can reapply the following year.
7. NASP reserves the right to disinvite accepted mentee and mentor applicants at any time.
8. Mentee and/or Mentor may terminate this Agreement for any or no reason upon the delivery of written notice to the other party and NASP.
9. NASP may terminate this Agreement for any or no reason upon the delivery of written notice to Mentee and Mentor.
10. Mentee and Mentor agree to waive and release any and all claims against NASP, its directors, officers, employees, agents, successors, and assigns, that relate to any action or inaction associated with the Program.
11. Mentee and Mentor agree to indemnify and hold NASP, its successors, assigns, employees, agents, directors, and officers harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, suits, judgments, damages, costs, losses, expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees and expenses and other liabilities incurred by NASP that directly or indirectly arise out of, relate to, or are based on Mentee’s and/or Mentor’s involvement in the Program.
