The DC Metro is similar to other metro/subways located in New York, Boston, and San Francisco. Smart Trip cards can be easily purchased at the vending machine located at every Metro station, or you can download the Smart Trip app on your phone to purchase a card and add passes or stored value. You can calculate exact costs by viewing the fare schedule located near the vending machines. Smart Trip cards can be purchased with coin, currency, ATM, or credit card. Keep your card easily accessible! You will need it when you enter and exit the station. Learn more about how to use a plastic or mobile Smart Trip card.
