Helping Children Thrive. In school. At home. In life.

Improving school psychology staffing ratios will improve student outcomes.

Recommended Ratio: 1 to 500

National Average: 1 to 1,211

---

School Psychologists' Role in Comprehensive School Mental Health Services

Intensive Community Interventions
- Coordination With School Providers
- Family Counseling
- Psychiatric Services
- Long-Term Individual Therapy

Intensive School Interventions
- Coordination With Community Providers
- Transition Planning
- Direct Therapeutic Services
- Suicide Intervention/Postvention

Targeted School Interventions
- Individual/Group Group Counseling
- Crisis Intervention/Response
- Psychological Assessments/IEP Planning
- Functional Behavioral Assessments/Intervention Plans

Early Identification of and Support for Mental–Behavioral Health Concerns
- Small-Group Skills Building
- Trauma Informed Services
- Student Mentoring
- Suicide Risk/Threat Assessments
- School Staff/Family Consultation
- Data Analysis to Address Disparities

Universal Wellness Promotion and Prevention
- Social–Emotional Learning
- School Climate Programming
- Psychoeducation
- Positive Behavioral Supports
- Universal Screening
- Culturally Responsive Services

---

SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGISTS PROVIDE CRITICAL SERVICES AT ALL TIERS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Key</th>
<th>School Support</th>
<th>Community Support</th>
<th>School &amp; Community Collaboration</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

---

WWW.NASPONLINE.ORG  #MENTALHEALTH | #ITSWHATWEDO