Nationally Certified School Psychologist

Application and Information for Graduates of NASP-Approved Programs

*Applicants from nonapproved programs can apply by visiting http://www.nasponline.org/certification/ncsp/app/index.aspx. Contact NASP Certification at cert@naspweb.org, or call (301) 657-0270 with questions.
The National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) created the National School Psychology Certification System (NSPCS) for the purpose of credentialing school psychologists who meet a nationally recognized standard. The NSPCS is open to members of NASP as well as to nonmembers. The administration of the NSPCS is vested under the authority of the National School Psychology Certification Board (NSPCB).

What Is a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP)?
Individuals who successfully meet the credentialing standards established by the NSPCS are entitled to use the designation Nationally Certified School Psychologist or NCSP (NASP policy adopted by the Delegate Assembly, 1988). Any individual who uses this designation or represents himself or herself as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist without having fulfilled the requirements of this certification process is deemed to be in violation of NASP's Principles for Professional Ethics and may be denied the right to future certification or may be subject to legal action.

Specific Goals of the National School Psychology Certification System Include the Following:

- To promote uniform credentialing standards across states, agencies and training institutions.
- To monitor the implementation of NASP credentialing standards at the national level.
- To promote continuing professional development (CPD) for school psychologists.
- To facilitate credentialing of school psychologists across states through the use of reciprocity.
- To ensure a consistent level of training and experience in service providers who are nationally certified.
- To promote the utilization of NASP Standards for Graduate Preparation of School Psychologists, 2010 by training institutions (formerly known as the Standards for Training and Field Placement Programs in School Psychology, 2000).
- To encourage individual members to seek national certification.

Qualification Standards
To qualify for national certification, a school psychologist must meet established standards of the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). In March 2010, NASP adopted the 2010 revision of the Professional Standards:

- Model for Comprehensive and Integrated School Psychological Services, 2010 (Effective March, 2010)
- Principles for Professional Ethics, 2010 (Effective January 1, 2011)
- Standards for Graduate Preparation of School Psychologists, 2010 (Fully effective for NASP Program Review and Approval, Fall 2014)
- Standards for the Credentialing of School Psychologists (NCSP applicants are required to meet the 2000 standards through December 31, 2015, and the 2010 standards beginning January 1, 2016)

These documents may be viewed on the NASP website at www.nasponline.org/standards/2010standards.aspx

For your reference, the previous version of the Professional Standards can be found at:

Resources to Assist NASP Members With the Application Process
NASP members can access helpful information to assist them in preparing to apply for the NCSP at www.nasponline.org/certification/becomeNCSP.aspx
Note: For your NCSP application to be reviewed, clear evidence must be provided that the following requirements have been met.

Program Requirements

- Completion of an organized program of study that is officially titled “school psychology.”
- Completion of 60 graduate semester/90 quarter hours of study in school psychology. At least 54 graduate semester/81 graduate quarter hours must have been exclusive of credit for the supervised internship experience.

Internship

Successful completion of a 1200-hour internship in school psychology, of which at least 600 hours must be in a school setting. The internship must be recognized through institutional (transcript) documentation. Individuals who graduated from a program that did not offer a 1200-hour internship may complete a field-based internship. If the prospective applicant is currently working in a school setting, it is suggested that the individual contact the program director, preferably of a NASP-approved program, enroll in an internship seminar at the university, and have a credentialed school psychologist supervise them in their work setting. Contact cert@naspweb.org for additional information on documentation for graduation or internship served prior to December 31, 1994.

Examination

Applicants must achieve a passing score (147 or higher) on the Praxis II® School Psychologist Exam administered by the Educational Testing Service (#5402). Test scores remain valid for ten (10) years after the testing date. Test scores older than ten (10) years are considered expired and would require the retaking of the examination. Applicants who took the exam between 2008 and 2014 must have achieved a passing score of 165. Those who took the exam prior to its revision in September 2008 must have achieved a passing score of 660 or higher.

Program Completion Within 10 Years of Application

Effective January 1, 2016, individuals applying for the NCSP credential as a graduate of a NASP-approved program must submit their application within 10 years of completing the program.

Continuing Professional Development Required to Maintain Certification

All school psychologists who hold the NCSP must actively engage in activities designed to maintain, expand, and extend their professional training and skills. In order to meet this requirement, the NCSP must complete at least 75 contact hours of continuing professional development within a 36-month period. Among those 75 hours, NCSPs must obtain 10 CPD hours from NASP- and/or APA-approved providers and 3 CPD hours in ethical practice and legal regulation of school psychology (e.g., referring to IDEA, ESEA/NCLB, Section 504, and similar issues). NASP’s annual convention and summer conferences offer valuable opportunities to earn approved provider CPD credits. In addition, you can utilize NASP’s Online Learning Center.

Please visit www.nasponline.org/certification/New%20NCSP%20booklet.pdf for detailed information on the types of CPD required for renewal. At the end of each 3-year period, the NCSP credential must be renewed by verifying that the minimum CPD requirements have been met. The renewal fee covers application processing, directory maintenance, and other administrative costs.
The application process for national certification requires submission of the application and supporting documentation, including the score obtained on the ETS-School Psychologist Examination (Praxis II). The application process is managed by the NASP office. The entire cycle of review, analysis of material, and subsequent feedback to the applicant may take two to three months from the time the application is received. We appreciate the patience of all applicants and we endeavor to process all applications in a timely manner. You will receive written notification when your application has been reviewed.

NCSP Application Fee
This nonrefundable fee is payable to NASP if a nonmember of NASP becomes a member of NASP when submitting the application, then the NASP member fee will apply. This fee covers the cost of application materials, credential review, record updates, maintenance of the online directory, and other mailings. The rates are as follows:

- Student/Early Career 1st Year/Leave of Absence Member $60
- Early Career 2nd Year Member $85
- NASP Member $110
- Nonmember $210

ETS-School Psychologist Examination
The examination required by the National School Psychology Certification System is the School Psychologist Praxis II Examination, Test #5402 (or #0401 if taken between 2008 and 2014, or #0400 if taken before September, 2008), owned and administered by the Educational Testing Service (ETS) as part of the Praxis II Series. This examination was developed jointly by NASP and ETS in 1987 and was most recently updated in 2014. NASP participated in the process in a technical and professional consulting role.

Test registration materials for the School Psychologist Examination are available through ETS or through most college and university testing centers. For further information on the registration process, visit www.ets.org/praxis/prxreg.html. ETS may be reached at (800) 772-9476. Special administration(s) of the examination are possible, upon request.

Both the application for the examination and the fee are sent directly to ETS. When applying to take the examination, you must include the code for NASP on your national examination Critical Information Form and answer sheet so that NASP will receive your test results. The code is listed in the ETS Praxis Series Information Bulletin. Upon request of the test applicant, ETS will mail an official score report of a prior examination directly to NASP. NASP must receive an official score report directly from ETS. Copies of a score report will not be accepted. For individuals seeking national certification, the examination must be passed within ten (10) years of the initial Board review date. Score reports will be maintained by NASP as confidential information.

Note: A passing score is set by the National School Psychology Certification Board (NSPCB) upon recommendation of the NASP examination validation panel. The passing score utilized by the NSPCB may differ from passing scores selected by individual state certification boards for use with state certification. The passing score is reviewed annually by the NSPCB and modified as warranted.
The following information applies to applicants for the NCSP who graduated from/completed a school psychology program no more than one calendar year prior to the effective date of NASP approval for the program.

Individuals completing a school psychology program that received NASP approval subsequent to graduation/program completion must submit a letter from the Program Coordinator/Director that attests to the equivalency between the program from which the applicant graduated and the program subsequently approved by NASP. This letter must specifically address (a) changes implemented in the program between the date the applicant completed the program and the date of NASP approval, (b) whether the applicant completed additional studies to address those changes, and (c) the equivalency of the individual’s coursework, practica, internship, and evaluation with those of students completing the approved program.

Submission of a letter, as described above, does not assure approval of the application for the NCSP. It will, however, be given serious consideration within the review and decision-making process.

Please follow the Application Checklist for Graduates of NASP-Approved Programs. If it is determined that the applicant has not met the requirements for a NASP-approved program, the applicant will be asked to submit documentation specified in the Application Checklist for Graduates of Non-NASP-Approved Programs.
APPLICATION CHECKLIST FOR GRADUATES OF NASP-APPROVED PROGRAMS

All of the information listed below must be included with the application. Incomplete applications cannot be considered.

☐ Official transcripts of all graduate study. Official transcripts have either a raised seal or a colored ink stamp. Transcripts may also be sent electronically to cert@naspweb.org. If paper copies are issued to student, they MUST REMAIN IN A SEALED ENVELOPE.

* A school setting is defined by the NASP standards as: A setting in which the primary goal is the education of P–12 students of diverse backgrounds, characteristics, abilities, disabilities, and needs. The school setting has available an internal or external pupil services unit that includes at least one credentialed school psychologist and provides a full range of services.
About the National Association of School Psychologists
NASP is the largest, most influential organization of school psychologists in the world, representing more than 26,000 members. NASP supports the efforts of its members and other stakeholders by providing resources and services that:

- Serve the mental health and educational needs of all children and youth
- Promote prevention and early intervention, problem-solving approaches and collaboration, and research-based strategies and programs
- Encourage and provide opportunities for the professional growth of individual members
- Inform the public about the services and practice of psychology in schools
- Advance the standards of the profession of school psychology

Join NASP!
Becoming an NCSP does not automatically make you a member of NASP. Neither is membership in NASP required to become an NCSP. However, NASP membership is an important professional advantage and responsibility. It is an easy and essential way to improve your skills, advance the profession, and promote quality services for children and youth.

Among others, member benefits include:

- Discounts on NCSP application and renewal fees (See page 3 for fees.)
- Annual subscriptions to Communiqué and School Psychology Review, printed and online versions
- Discounts on professional liability insurance
- Access to a wide range of online practice and research resources for members only
- Special member rates on NASP publications
- Access to discounted convention fees and discounts on the On-Line Learning
- Opportunities to network with colleagues from around the country
- Ability to participate in the mission and leadership of the Association

For further information or to join NASP, visit www.nasponline.org or call (866) 331-NASP (6277).
