Five Great Reasons to Become a Member

1. Always have the most current research and guidance. Read Communiqué, NASP in Brief, School Psychology Review, and two more peer-reviewed journals. Listen to 250+ podcasts and webinars to help with assessments and interventions.

2. Learn from the largest community of school psychologists nationwide. Seek guidance in the online Communities or through the NASP Mentorship program. Speak with peers at the convention about solutions to challenges in your practice.

3. Save significantly with member-only discounts. Members pay less for convention and Advanced Skills Institute registrations, NCSP applications and renewals, webinars, liability insurance, and publications.

4. Focus on your professional growth. Earn NASP-approved CPD for your certification renewal at the convention or Advanced Skills Institute or through the Online Learning Center. Find leadership resources online to help you grow in your role. Enjoy exclusive access to job openings in the NASP Career Center for the first week after they are posted.

5. Support NASP’s work on behalf of all kids. By being a member, you support advocacy and resource development at the national level so we can promote the profession, affect legislation related to educational funding and shortages, address issues of equity, and more.
